

College Bound...Career Ready?

It's never too early to start thinking about and planning for your college education after your high school graduation! Here's the good news.....BCPS College Preparation Services (671.8180) is here to help you do just that. Do you want to explore your career options? Or, are you a junior or senior in high school counting down the months and days until you graduate and wonder how you'll pay for college? Whatever your grade level, we can provide you with information and resources to help you chart your path to success. To get you started on your college planning here is a resource for you to explore:

College Week Live: Have you ever wondered what it might be like to attend the University of Southern Nevada – School of Nursing or the United States Naval Academy or University of Yale? Well, from the comfort of your own computer, you can take a “look” without leaving home! All you need to do is go to www.collegeweeklive.com. CollegeWeekLive is the world's biggest virtual college fair, with more than 200 colleges and universities from around the world exhibiting and more than 25,000 attendees. The event revolutionizes college admissions, making the process easier and more cost-effective by bringing together students, parents, counselors and colleges online to interact, transcending time and distance. CollegeWeekLive occurs yearly in November and March and is completely free to attendees.

The next session of CollegeWeekLive will take place on March 25 – 26, 2009. To sign up for FREE participation, go to www.collegeweeklive.com.

Questions? Contact Sue Murphy, BCPS College Preparation Services at 671.8180 or murphys@bcschools.net.